

Military Career Course

.....NOTES

Consider the following questions as you work through the required activities for this course.

What services are available to dependents when their spouses are deployed and to services members upon their return from deployment?

What are some advantages and disadvantages of joining the military after high school as opposed to first earning a post-secondary degree and/or entering the competitive private work force?

What are the requirements to enter military service after high school as an enlisted member? As an officer?

What educational benefits are available to active duty service members?

Name 5 occupations a person could pursue in the military that would transfer to civilian employment after active duty service is complete.

What are some of the most important aspects your students and parents/guardians will want to know about military careers?

How can you use this information to improve military awareness for your students and parents/guardians?